Brian Atkinson is a comedian, all-around nice guy, and a horrible person. His good guy persona often gives way to surprising twists that will keep you laughing. While his voice might be the first thing you notice, his confidence, and engaging storytelling will keep you coming back. Brian Atkinson makes jokes, but only the finest artisan, hand-crafted, farm-to-table-saw jokes.

You may have heard Brian Atkinson's voice somewhere, or seen him on a screen. Brian appeared as a serial killer in a Lifetime Movie Network movie and as a voice on the Sprout PBS Kids Network (on the same day). As a voice actor, you can find his audio books on Audible, as well as Amazon and iTunes.

Brian's sharp, smart comedic style has been a hit at clubs, contests, corporate events, and festivals across the country including Bonkerz, Crackers, Comedy Cabaret, Dr. Grins, One Night Stan's, Punchlines, Sunday Night Funnies, The Funny Stop, and Gilda's Laugh Fest, and he was a Semi-Finalist in The Funniest Person in Grand Rapids contest. Brian is also one of the two founders of Clean Comedy Time performing for shows, events, and fundraisers - and co-host of the Clean Comedy Time Podcast.

Originally from Chicago, Brian is a die-hard Cubs and Bears fan. Brian and his lovely wife Holly live in Grand Rapids, MI. He has a lot of t-shirts.

Reviews:

We hired Brian Atkinson as the comedian for our company holiday party. But, then we had to cancel it. We rescheduled a full year later, and what a wonderful night! Brian performed material that was funny, appropriate, and special to us. He crafted some of his jokes after an interview with us, making sure he knew who we are and what would make us laugh. He was worth the wait!

We wanted to provide an evening of entertainment for our church, and possibly draw others to see a show. Brian Atkinson brought us a Clean Comedy Showcase, including three other comics in addition to himself. They were all excellent and of course appropriate for our church. Brian was especially good to work with, always professional, and always timely in his communication, and he is very funny! He produced a terrific show, and everyone had a great time! We are happy to recommend him for any church or organization who likes to laugh.

Brian Atkinson performed a headline set of Clean Comedy at our Labor Day weekend entertainment event. Our campground was founded by the Free Methodist Church and many of our campers choose us because of the Christian environment. Brian understood our needs and answered our every request to shape his material for our audience. His comedy was not only clean, it was family-friendly and worked well for adults and children alike. I would be glad to recommend Brian Atkinson for anyone who needs a clean comedian.

Brian Atkinson entertained at our company anniversary dinner. He was very responsive to our needs throughout the process and when show time came, he kept everyone laughing with his clean comedy and some jokes just for us. When the hotel conference room sound system didn't work, he never missed a beat and filled the room with his voice. I would happily recommend Brian Atkinson for any corporate event.

What a pleasure having Brian Atkinson at our private event for seniors. Brian's witty thinking, positive attitude, and compelling voice allowed him to persevere with twists from audience participation. With his immediate personalized connection to our group, he had everyone engaged through relatable storytelling, entertained with clean jokes, and laughing at the punch line for the full hour. We were honored to have Brian as a guest at our program and we look forward to working with him again soon.

Whether he's talking about the time he almost got the job as the Chicago Cubs field announcer or his solution for repairing our street's pothole problem Brian Atkinson has a unassuming manner about him. He has a likability not unlike that of an old friend who's sharing an amusing anecdote- just much funnier! Brian was also gracious enough to fill in on short notice to close one of the nights of the Sunday Night Funnies Kingpin of Comedy competition and did a great job!
